1 Below are reasons why children should or shouldn't do housework. Put them in the correct column. Add some more if you can.

1. Doing housework helps them develop life skills.
2. Doing housework teaches them to take responsibility.
3. Kids should be given plenty of playtime when they are young.
4. They may break or damage things when doing housework.
5. Doing housework helps strengthen family bonds.
6. They need more time to study and do homework.

Should	Shouldn't
Doing housework helps them develop life skills.	Kids should be given plenty of playtime when they are young.
Doing housework teaches them to take responsibility.	They may break or damage things when doing housework.
Doing housework helps strengthen family bonds.	They need more time to study and do homework.

2 Work in pairs. Complete the conversation between Anna, Nam, and Minh using some ideas from 1. Then listen to the conversation and check your answers.

Anna: Nam, why do you think children should do housework?

Nam: Because (1) doing housework helps them (2) develop life skills.

Anna: It's true. Life skills such as cooking, cleaning or taking care of others are really necessary for kids when they grow up.

Nam: Yes, we should all have these basic life skills to be adults.

Anna: Now Minh, why do you think children shouldn't do housework?

Minh: I think kids are kids. They should be given plenty of playtime when they are young.

Nam: I don't agree with you. I'm afraid too much playtime isn't good for children.

Anna: Well, thank you both for sharing your ideas. They are very useful for my project.

WHILE-SPEAKING

3
